Recently, we had Delhi based MUA and Entrepreneur Priyanka Bhola in talks with us and during the super exclusive interview, she spilled a lot of beans about her life, career and more.

Apart from her glamorous and boss-lady side we also got to know about her fun and loving side which you will also going to love it.

Let's take a look into the fun and surprising talk with Priyanka Bakaya Bhola:

How do you see yourself as an entrepreneur and also as a MUA?

Priyanka replied, "I've started my career as a Make-up artist and I am very passionate about it. I worked and brushed up my skills and built my career in the field of cosmetology. As I have become a professional make-up artist, I opened up my own studio in West Delhi and I feel so grateful and blessed that my hardwork has payed off."

Recently, Priyanka have started her own clothing brand 'Libaas By Piyu'. She believes that people need to explore various things and find new source of earning and growth for themselves.

She said, "Life is unpredictable so we must prepare ourselves practically as well as emotionally. Our parents gave made us well educated then why not make the best use of it? I am a make-up artist who also owns her own studio but still I think I could do more so I stared my own clothing brand."

"I think one shouldn't depend on a single source of earning. We must have multiple source of income," added Priyanka.

Tells us something about your clothing buisness. What type of clothing do you offer?

"My clothing brand 'Libaas By Piyu' offers Kashmiri touch attire and apparels that we get all the way from Kashmir. I am a Kashmiri Pandit and it is basically our family business which I am introducing on online and offline market. Our outlet is in janak puri district centre! Please do visit," replied Priyanka.

So you're a Kashmiri Pandit.

Recently there was a lot of buzz because of 'The Kashmir Files' film which shows how brutally Kashmiri Hindus and other minorities were treated. What say you have on this and how did you began with your Kashmir rooted buisness?

"We are Kashmiri Pandit migrants residing in Delhi currently. Yes, that time was very hard for each of Kashmiri Pandits residing there, and I don't want to talk related to the suffering rather how we made our root of growth is what I want everyone to know."

Priyanka continued, "We left Kashmir after 1990 exodus. From then to now my father Raju Bakaya works in handicraft & embroidered apparel business. I think it's been more than 15-20 years.

Lately, I thought to take the idea of handicraft and embroidery to another level. My father does offline buisness only and has little knowledge about online buisness but today as we see the emergence of digital India there is more value of online work and business. So, thought to take this purity of work online. It's been 2-3 months nearly since I've got my hands on this and my business is running pretty well as i thought it would be."

"People are so interested in wearing Kashmiri apparel and stuffs. Clients feedbacks are really amazing. I am also planning to conduct a meet and greet at store soon let's see how it goes," she added.

We also heard that you have collaborated with top brands and popular celebrities. We want to know more about that from you.

Priyanka reveals, that she had recently done makeup of renowned actress Mansha Bahl for a designer shoot. "It was a lovely experience, and let me tell you...it's for the second time I'm working with her, previously we worked during movie 'fugly' and it all went really well," said Priyanka.

"Yes, Yes! I have won the best instagram creator cash prize from streax professional event and there are many more similar achivement just like this."

While answering about her special message she said, "I want girls to stood for themselves. People will say that you're meant to stay indoors only after you'll get married. But, let me tell you guys...today something is also known as 'online' and 'work from home.' I'm not telling you to fight this, fight that... because fighting will only consume your energy. Try to find new ways for yourself, for your growth for your success. And also, keep your chin up and smile in the process."

Deepali Chauhan

shares her thoughts about fashion and glamour industry

Deepali Chauhan who is a yoga instructor, gym trainer, model and an actor is continuously climbing the ladder of success with her every new project.

Sharing her experiences in beginning of her career she says, "It all started in 2017. I used to go for photo shoots before but it was in that year, I got my first music video "Joban" through a friend of mine and it kind of changed things for better for me."

The model also got candid about her decision of being a part of glamour world and how this industry motivated her since childhood, "I used to watch modelling shows and films. Watching their interviews, learning about their struggle, their lifestyle and from where they started it all motivated me for getting into it."

Deepali also recalled her first modelling show and called it her best moment from her career. The actress says "I still remember the year, the day, the date. It was 26th Jan 2019, the first modelling ramp walk show put up by my coaching academy. It was around 10 pm, temperature was so low and I was freezing. I won the title of the best face that evening. It was a big moment for me."

Calling her fashion aesthetics as pleasing to look at she added "I would say that aesthetic fashion is clothing that is unique with bold clothes that typically would have been trendy years ago. ... Anyone can wear it."

When asked if her clothing style is different on ramp and at home she explained "As a model, I always like to keep my personal life and professional life separated. I may go for short dresses and little bold shoots but when it comes to society, I care deeply about what my family thinks because they are the one who helped me and supported me to become what I am today. I usually wear suit salwar or lose shirts and shorts or pajamas at home."

Deepali also touched on the topic of body image and said, "After decades of talk about body image, women's body positivity looks to be at an all-time high. ... Perhaps worse still, 85 percent of women believe they should feel more body-positive than they do. Meaning, not only do we hate on our bodies, but we also hate on ourselves for hating on them."

When asked about tips people can follow to improve their style, she said "Look to your own closet. Think about the clothes you have that make you happy. ... Find fashion inspiration. ... Create a fashion mood board. ... Create a capsule wardrobe. ... Experiment with unique style choices.... and just with what you feel comfortable in."

Deepali also had a few advices for youngsters who want to enter the industry. Talking about the difficulties this field puts you through she said, "Not getting paid a lot of money at the beginning, you may not have work for a few weeks which will also reduce your finances dramatically, you will have to be on a healthy diet and exercise all the time to remain trim and healthy. However if you are passionate enough you will get noticed. You just need to have patience. Just recognize your strengths, understand the duties of the job and take care of your body," she concluded.

Mia had us imagine her ideal date as a candlelit meal on an island with a private yacht with her Mr dressed to the nines. She wants to engage a photographer who would capture their greatest moments for them to enjoy later. When asked about her favourite vacation, Mia stated that any location is great till her guy is present, but if she had to choose, she would travel to Goa, Kerala in India and Bali on top to reconnect with nature, Switzerland & Paris in term of romance . Who doesn't enjoy trying new foods? Mia, too, enjoys exploring Indian cuisine with her spouse, stating that Indian cuisine is always her first option. Mia defines love as compatibility and a deep relationship between two people. Even if they don't converse, a couple should be aware of each other's ups and downs, according to her.

A little spark in you can take you to a higher level and bring out the best in you.

Neetu Grover, who has worn the crown of "Mrs India Style Icon" in 2021 shared her another success.

It has truly been said that when you have your vision clear about what you have to do in your life, nobody can stop you.

A little spark in you can take you to a higher level and bring out the best in you. When you chase your dreams and goals by heart, every existing power will try to make it possible.

Neetu Grover, who was extraordinarily indulged in her thoughts of how to make her dreams come true, is now being chased by all the flashlights. Being a housewife, she managed to work on her thoughts and gradually progressed. She had some spark in her since day 1, which had been pushing her to make another move every time.

With diligence and challenges, she finally made it to win "Mrs India Style Icon" in 2021. It was such a proud moment for her and the family that the lady who was doing the role of a housewife now finally outshone herself.

After her first undefeated move, she didn't hold herself back and made a high jump. She started her new journey as a designer in the current year 2022. Her new journey is described as "Frills and Hangers". It is a luxurious clothing store and a great platform for those who wish to wear their customised clothes, but for some reason, they can't make it.
